4. Cross Functional Collaboration Project Award

This award recognises an NHS procurement or supply chain management project which through the development of a collaborative partnership with other parties can demonstrate some or all of the following:

- Demonstrates a collaborative project which delivers significant improvements in procurement, logistics and/or supply chain.
- Identifies challenges and how these were addressed to deliver success to the project.
- Identifies innovative methods implemented in the delivery of improvements through collaboration.
- Demonstrates the delivery of significant savings or other efficiencies through collaboration.
- Demonstrates the championing of Social Value and/or Sustainability to enhance and improve outcomes for all through collaboration or partnerships.
- Demonstrates the relationships and benefits of collaboration between parties to deliver successful outcomes.

Nominations for this award are not restricted to members of the HCSA and can be made on behalf of anyone working at any level in the health care purchasing and supply function.

The nomination must be proposed by a member of the HCSA.
