9. Supplier Innovation and Excellence Award

This award is open to suppliers who can demonstrate that either working as a standalone business or with other NHS organisations they have utilised innovation either clinical or non-clinical to improve a product, create a new idea, method, technology, process, application or service that has transformed or enhanced patient care and improved efficiency within supported organisations.

The submission should demonstrate some of the following

- Reduction in total pathway costs; quantifiable efficiency improvements; quantifiable direct or indirect benefits to patient outcomes.
- Demonstrate commitment to improving sustainability/social value or both by innovative methods/continuous improvement programme
- Delivery of significant improvements in reduction in the carbon footprint of its organisation
- Demonstrate significant improvements in the delivery of procurement, logistics and supply chain
- Demonstrated/implemented innovative methods in the delivery of improvements through collaboration.
- Demonstrate the delivery of significant savings or other efficiencies.

Nominations for this award are not restricted to members of the HCSA, nominations must be relevant to the NHS.

The nomination must be supported by a member of the HCSA.
