8. Sustainability and or Social Value Excellence Award

This award is intended to recognise excellence and innovation in sustainability and or social value, or both.

This can be an individual or team or project in a health care organisation that demonstrates an organisational wide commitment for sustainability and or social value or both.

The submission should demonstrate evidence of excellence in the delivery of sustainability/social value or both that has had a direct and positive impact to patients, the organisation and/or wider health community.

This may include some or all of the following:

- Demonstrates the impact of sustainability/social value or both in improving outcomes
- Champions the sustainable/social value environmental benefits to the wider health community
- Demonstrates commitment to improving sustainability/social value or both by innovative methods/continuous improvement programme
- Delivery of significant improvements in reduction in the carbon footprint of the organisation
- Demonstrates how sustainability/social value objectives and benefits are measured

Nominations for this award are not restricted to members of the HCSA and can be made on behalf of anyone working at any level in the health care purchasing and supply function.

The nomination must be proposed by a member of the HCSA.
